

The Florida Consul of Mexico, Hon. Alberto Fierro, and Jacksonville's international economic development partners invite you to a seminar on.....

Doing Business with Mexico

SEMINAR OVERVIEW

If you have not yet tapped into the Mexican market to sell or source your goods and services -- or invest in the country -- then please attend this event. The Consul of Mexico based in Orlando, the Hon. Alberto Fierro, and his representatives will provide an overview of the Mexican economy and resources to help you with purchasing and investment opportunities, while U.S. trade representatives will discuss resources to help you sell your product or service in Mexico, the 14th largest economy in the world. Mexican trade is covered by the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), and the United States is Mexico's largest import and export trading partner. This seminar is a great starting point for you to participate in this sizeable market.

When: Wednesday, June 30, 2010

Time: 8:00 a.m. - 10:30 a.m. (Registration begins at 8:00 a.m.)

Where: Jacksonville University; Davis College of Business; Rm. 159

Cost: $10 per person; RSVP required..... seats are limited!

ONE-ON-ONE MEETINGS

A limited number of one-on-one meetings with the Mexican Consul's office will be available immediately following the seminar to discuss business in more detail. RSVP now to secure one of these limited opportunities.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Companies looking to buy Mexican products and services
- Companies looking to sell U.S. products and services in Mexico
